Jane Anderson Foods at Thriftmart Tried and Endorsed by Herald Writer

By MILDRED HUNT

A food tip to cut cooking time in half for Torrance housewives can be had in the yellow and red, cellophane packages of the Jane Anderson foods.

These tasty and nourishing foods come fresh every day to their counter in the new Thriftmart at 2217 Palms Verdes Blvd., from the Thriftmart Delicatessen kitchen on West Centinela Ave. where 120 different delicatessen items are produced.

I give you this tip first hand as I visited the market and filled a shopping cart full of the "heat and serve" variety of delicious food which included cheese enchiladas, chicken pie, beef enchiladas, cocktail pizzas, beef pie, potato salad, health salad, tomato aspic and frozen baked potato.

This is not a cliché to try and sell this particular line of food because of the savory quality and reasonable prices, but an out-and-out tip to the busy, or working housewife as well as those who might want more leisure hours for their club work, or bridge games.

It took a scant 15 minutes to prepare cheese enchiladas, chicken pie, baked potato served with aspic and health salad. For serving this meal to my family, I heard such comments as "this is really good" and "why don't you serve this more often?"

Another tip on the Jane Anderson foods is that they make ideal dishes for picnics, especially their attractively packaged salads which include kidney bean, sunshine salad, black heart cherry, cold slow, macaroni salad and fruit salad. Not only for picnics but these can be added to that hefty lunch you always like to pack for the hard-working man of the house.

For every-day, or party fare you can serve, by merely warming, such holiday dishes as Italian style spaghetti, spaghetti sauce, chicken croquettes, tamales, tacos and pizzas. These foods, so reasonably priced, have won such popularity because all are scientifically prepared with just the right amount of seasoning and ingredient balance.

Aksel Hansen, clerk in charge of the Jane Anderson department, at Thriftmart, is a native of Denmark who has been in this country about one year. He will tell you if you get to talking to him that he is a little unsure of his English. However, he has mastered the Kings' English quite well and can answer the many queries about the delicatessen line. It is his opinion that the American housewife is most fortunate to have such old-world foods prepared in such a way as only to "heat and serve." "In my country," he relates, "a homemaker would have to stand over a hot stove many hours to prepare such food."

Hansen told me his only problem with the Jane Anderson delicatessen foods is keeping the counter well stocked. Although it is within a few hours for the food to reach his counter from the kitchen, he finds that the counter is completely emptied by the end of the day. Early the next morning, he is busy arranging stock for the oncoming rush of the day. According to him, there is less than a 24 hour turnover of the food.

After eating this delectable food, you too, will readily agree.

George Whittingtons Feted On Silver Wedding Date

Many Lomitan attendees the surprise party given on July 28 honoring Mr. and Mrs. George L. Whittington who were celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. The Whittingtons were led to believe they would be chaperoning a dance for a younger group of Latter Day Saints at the Mormon Church in Wilmington.

Upon entering the church, the honored couple were completely surprised to see more than a hundred guests gathered for a reception in their honor. Their daughter, Elizabeth and Janet Erickson, a niece, presented Mrs. Whittington with a white orchid and Mr. Whittington with a boutonniere.

The recreation hall was decorated with white streamers and silver wedding bells. At one end of the hall stood an arch of pink and white carnations under which the Whittingtons stood to receive their guests. The cake was a square tiered affair decorated with silver bells and pink rose buds on a white background. The gift table had a unique feature made by Mrs. Thelma Hood; the centerpiece was a money tree on which friends and relatives placed money. Many other beautiful gifts were received.

Bob Erickson sang "The Anniversary Song" and "Because." He was accompanied by Sally Halling at the piano. In charge of refreshments were Genivie Wotherspoon, Annabelle Mullin, Ruth Vandevanter, Ellen Maxham, and June Bechtold. Melba Burr received gifts for the anniversary couple. Sally Halling attended the guest book. Instigators for the surprise were Janet Erickson, Elizabeth Whittington and Agnus Whittington.

Electric cooking is fastest

Now! Bacon and Eggs in 3 1/2 minutes when you cook electrically!

TODAY, NOTHING COOKS FASTER than a modern electric range. Bacon and eggs in 3 1/2 minutes. Instant coffee in 60 seconds. Hot soup in 68 seconds. Fry, bake, broil or roast — electricity does it better.

THERE'S MORE: your kitchen is as much as 16° cooler. And cleaner. Pots and pans stay mirror-bright. Kitchen walls look fresh and new twice as long.

SOMEDAY YOU'LL COOK on a modern electric range. It's almost inevitable. But why postpone it? Edison rates are among the lowest in the country. What's more, Edison services your range free as long as you own it. (The only charge is for parts, when needed.)

IF YOU'RE STILL COOKING the old way, it's simply because you haven't seen the new '56 electric ranges at your appliance dealer's.
